Morrisville Cong'l Church Notes

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30
The Camp Fire Girls will meet Saturday afternoon.

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning will be, "Missing a Great Opportunity."

The C. E. service was led by Miss Ruth Parker, who gave a very helpful discussion on "Little ways to Help."

Saturday afternoon the Junior Endeavorers will hold an Open Market in front of the church. Cooked food, vegetables and fruit will be offered for sale.

In the evening at the C. E. service, the pastor will give an illustrated talk on "Everyday Life in Japan." The Treasurer will be glad to receive missionary pledges due up to date.

Next Tuesday evening at 7:30 there will be a Young People's social, to which all young people, and old people who want to forget their age, and to feel young again, are heartily invited.

We were glad to see a largely increased attendance at Sunday school last Sunday morning, and look for a full attendance next Sunday. Principal Sears has resumed his Men's Bible Class and cordially invites all men to its sessions. Mrs. Baker has taken charge of the Primary Class and will be glad to meet all the little ones.

Last Sunday morning, Mr. Baker spoke on the theme, "making one's life count," from the text, Phil. iii, 14. It is a wonderful thing just to be alive. But more wonderful, of infinitely greater value to the world that we make our lives count for something. We pass this way but once. There is no return by the way we came. Every midnight is a gate that swings behind us, locking yesterday away from our reach, and ushering us into the paths of the new day. Because of the restless movement of the tide of human life, it behooves us to stop and earnestly consider a subject of which we are prone to think too little, what may I do that I have not been doing to make my life count?
Every hour, yes, every minute of every hour, some one is reaching the end of his journey. Somewhere in every hour of every day the slow-moving, black line creeps to the silent city on the hill, "where the narrow home appointed for all the living." And for each one of us—the youngest as well as the oldest—the time will come when we shall stand at the border of the shadow land to realize that the only things worth while are the results of a life spent in pursuit of those things which make the world brighter, and which tend to lift our fellowmen to higher planes of living.

Arthur Douglass and Mr. F. O. Thayer went to Burlington Tuesday morning where the former's daughter was taken to Fanny Allen hospital.
